THE annual examination of the pupils in the Institution for the Education of the Blind will take place on Monday and Tuesday, June 23d and 24th.

TAXPAYERS who are in arrears on the duplicate, should bear in mind that the time limited by law for making payment, without incurring a penalty, expires on Saturday, June 20th.

VERDICT—In the Court of Common Pleas at Zanesville, the jury, in the case of Mrs. Culbertson, indicted for poisoning her husband, returned, on a trial lasting six days, a verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree.

COLLINS STONE, Esq., has resigned his position as Superintendent of the Ohio Asylum for the Deaf and Dumb, for the purpose of taking charge of a similar institution in Hartford, Connecticut, with which he was formerly connected.

THE excursion to, and sale of lots at Lewis Center on Monday, should be remembered by those wishing to invest small sums profitably or purchase a cheap home on easy terms in a healthy, beautiful and growing town. See advertisement and take your family to the country for a ride, if nothing more, and buy a lot when you get there.

WORTH CONSIDERING.—Good diet makes healthy children and healthy adults. Good Salutaris helps to make nutritious, healthy diet. Hence use DeLand & Co.'s Chemical Salutaris, as it is perfectly pure, and better than Soda for all purposes.

THE better nations become acquainted with each other, the fewer will be their prejudices, and the more likely will they be to love and respect each other. Just so with Herick Allen's Gold Medal Salutaris—the more you know of it, the more you want to, and the more anxious you are to have your friends become its patrons. It not only makes the best Biscuits, Bread, etc., but it cures dyspepsia and strengthens weak stomachs. It has no equal. Most of the Grocers have it.

THE REBELLION RECORD.—This work, edited by Frank Moore, and published by G. F. Putnam, New York, has completed its fifth volume. It is a most valuable repository of facts and documents—a record of acknowledged authority, both in this country and in Europe. Every student of our country's history, every one who aspires to general information upon the most interesting epoch of modern times, every family and every library should have the Rebellion Record complete from the commencement. It is published in monthly parts—seven making a volume—at fifty cents each, or three dollars and fifty cents a volume. Each part is illustrated with two portraits.

THAYER & NOYES' CIRCUS.—I am not in the habit of writing puff for shows, but if any person desires to see a good Circus, let them visit this today. No gentleman need fear to take his wife or family. The performance is conducted with great propriety, and chasteness. No vulgarism in the clowning. The equestrianism is of the first order. Take it all in all, it is one of the very best performances we have had in our city. Families can patronize it and go away pleased.

$50 REWARD!—STOLEN! On Saturday last, a soldier, belonging to the 1st Ohio Artillery, calling himself WILLIAM F. DAYTON, stole a horse and buggy from our stable.

Dayton had on a new military suit, five feet nine inches high, heavy cut, gray eyes, black hair and dark complexion; aged from 25 to 30 years, and a cooper by trade. He was born in Dresden, Ohio, and enlisted under Major Cotter, at Camp Cleveland. The horse is a bright red sorrel, about fifteen and a half hands high, handsome pony built, and in good condition with a speck on right eye, switch tail, not very long, and about 12 years old.

The buggy was a high topped one, narrow back, painted black, with deep blue figured bed lining; the harness was plated, and the whip light colored.

We will pay $50 for the detection of the thief and recovery of the property, or $25 for the recovery of the property alone.

REPORTED FOR THE STATESMAN

Last Night's Dispatches.

BRAGG'S ARMY DEMORALIZED.

PHILADELPHIA, June 12.—A special to the Bulletin from Murfreesboro says: The rebels have received very desponding news from Vicksburg. They are utterly demoralized. A Tennessee regiment mutilated when ordered by Bragg to reinforce Johnston. Bragg is reported to have said he "wished there 100,000 men were all in it." The affair caused great excitement.

Gov. Morton's Proclamation—Fight at Monticello, Ky.

CINCINNATI, June 12.—Governor Morton has issued a proclamation to the people of Indiana, warning all against resistance to the Government in any form, or hindering the Federal forces in discharging their duties.

A fight occurred at Monticello, Ky., on the 10th. Col. Kentz drove the rebels from the town and was falling back toward the Cumberland, when the rebels rallied in force and attacked our rear. We retreated slowly, when reinforcements came to our relief, and after desperate fighting for two hours, defeated the rebels. Our loss was thirty killed and wounded.

American Consul at Vera Cruz Arrested.

New York, June 12.—The steamer Mississippi, from New Orleans, has arrived. Special dispatches to the New Orleans Era of June 9th, from Southwest Pass, June 5th and 6th, say that a vessel arrived from Vera Cruz. Her officers report that the Mexicans have retreated before Puebla. It is also said the French arrested the American Consul. No reason given.

The Era of June 3d has an important order from Gen. Banks, to the effect that no interference is to be allowed with plantation property. Articles heretofore taken are to be restored.

Latest from Mexico.

New York, June 12.—The steamer Corsica, from Havana 6th and Naran 8th inst., has arrived. Reliable intelligence of the occupation of Puebla reached Havana. A furious attack was made on Fort Tulumucan. The city was given up by the Mexicans, being without food and ammunition, having eaten even all the artillery mules and cavalry horses. Ortega on the 16th, offered to surrender on condition that the soldiers be allowed to carry their baggage and the officers their side arms, and all to march to Mexico and report to the supreme Government, and these were granted, except the latter, Gen. Forey ordering them to go to Orizaba, and there stay until the close of the war.

Juarez has removed Gen. Comonfort from the command of the Mexican army of the center, for failing to succor Puebla, and Lagarza is put in his place. He would at once take the city and the capital and make every disposition for its defense. Juarez also issued a proclamation announcing the great disaster in the surrender of Puebla, and stating that the capital will not only be defended to the last extremity, but all places would be defended with vigor; that the nation will wage war without ceasing and under all sacrifices, against the odious army which is profaning its soil.

Veracruz advises report the escape of Gen. Ortega, Slave Mendez and eight more principal chiefs, over three hundred minor officers and two thousand prisoners, from the French convey en route to Orizaba.

Battle on the Yaxoo—The Fight at Milliken's Bend.

CAIRO, June 12.—By the steamer St. Cloud from Vicksburg, we learn that on Monday morning heavy cannonading was heard up the Yaxoo, when the boat left. Its import was not known. Officers by this arrival say it was believed in camp that a battle in our rear was highly probable. No one, however, believes Johnston to be able to raise the siege.

The fight at Milliken's Bend yesterday was of more importance than first reported. The rebels were eighteen hundred strong, under Henry McCullough, and one force less than one thousand, over six hundred of whom were negroes. The rebels at first drove our forces, nearly surrounding them. The fight was conducted with energy and desperation by our forces, and the rebels were held at bay until a gunboat came to our assistance.

An eyewitness reports our loss in killed at one hundred and thirty-four, one hundred of whom were negroes; wounded about the same number. The list of killed is very large, in consequence of many wounded being killed under "no quarter" cry. The rebels left over one hundred dead on the field and took away several wagon loads of wounded. The negroes are reported to have fought better than their white officers, many of whom it is said skulked away about the time of the battle. A column of rebels made their appearance at Young's Point. All citizens and transient persons were put under arms. No attack at the time our informant left.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Information received to day shows all quiet in the neighborhood of Pooleville. Mosby's raid into Maryland was of short duration. A telegram from Leesburg says his force was at Carter's Mills, on Goose creek, Loudoun county, at daybreak to day, hurrying back to the mountains. Union troops were in pursuit.

CINCINNATI, June 12.—A spy belonging to Jeff. Thompson's command was arrested at Indianapolis yesterday.

No news has been heard of the military who went to Rush county to arrest the men who killed deputy marshal Stevens and detective officer Clayfield. The excitement in that part of the State against the enrolling officers continues. The enrolling commissioners have been driven out of White River township.

The Gazette of yesterday contains the following items:

Advice from rebel sources admit the rebel loss at Fort Hudson was six hundred.

The seat of government of Mississippi has been temporarily removed to Enterprise.

Gen. Breckinridge made a speech at the city of Mobile on the 29th of May.

A dispatch dated Richmond, June 8th, says no official advice had been received from Vicksburg for several days.

It is understood that Mr. Vallandigham has proceeded to some southern port, from which he intends to take his departure for Nassau.

HARRISBURG, June 12.—Gen. Curtin has assumed command of the Department of the Susquehanna. He summons for the defense of the State all citizens between the ages of eighteen and sixty, to organize an army corps embracing cavalry, artillery and infantry, to serve during the pleasure of the President or the continuance of the war. When not required in active service to defend the department, they will be returned to their homes, subject to the call of the commanding General.

BALTIMORE, June 12.—On Wednesday, the steamer Maple Leaf left Fort Monroe for Fort Delaware, with ninety rebel officers on board. When near Cape Henry light house the rebels took possession of the Maple Leaf and sent her captain and crew below. She then steamed to 45 miles below the light house, sixty-five miles from Fortress Monroe, and landed on the Virginia shore in the boats of the steamer. Twenty-six of the rebel officers refused to go with the others, and the captain of the Maple Leaf then stepped his boat back to Fortress Monroe and reported to General Dix. Amongst the rebel officers was Capt. Semmes, a son of the captain of the pirate Alabama. The rebels did no injury to the boat.

From the Rappahannock.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—There was some shelling on the Rappahannock this morning, but all was soon quiet except occasional picket firing, while our lines remain the same as yesterday. It is positively known that Lee's force is near enough to what was the battle of Chancellorsville. Heavy reinforcements have been drawn from the Blackwater, and North and South Carolina. A large portion of them are new troops. Lee's command is divided into three corps, averaging, according to report, thirty thousand men each. There was evidently a stir in the rebel camp for a general movement.

News from Rebel Sources.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The following extracts are taken from the Richmond Dispatch of the 10th inst.:

JACKSON, Miss., June 6.—Gen. Pemberton has sent word that he can hold Vicksburg, and Gen. Johnston is to take his time to organize and discipline his forces.

MOBILE, June 9.—A special to the Tribune from Jackson, dated the 8th, says there are many rumors about the most reliable of which is that Gen. Kirby Smith, instead of being at Fort Hudson, has taken Milliken's Bend and cut off Gen. Grant's supplies. It is reported that Jackson's cavalry have cut their way through to Vicksburg. Col. Grierson is believed to have been driven five miles from Clinton, La.

MOBILE, June 9.—A special dispatch to the Advertiser and Register, from Jackson, 8th inst., says a courier from Vicksburg reports cheerfully of our prospects. Nine trains containing troops, believed to be from the army of Rosecrans, arrived at Memphis Saturday. There is a large garrison at Memphis.

JACKSON, Miss., June 8.—A scout just in from Vicksburg reports all working well; the men are in good spirits, but are somewhat wearied from lying in the trenches and exposure to the sun. Gen. Grant is slowly advancing by building parallels which are four hundred yards from our outer works. There has been no general assault for two days past. There is plenty of ammunition and provisions at Vicksburg, and the soldiers and citizens are confident of the result. Our entire loss during the series of assaults will not exceed six hundred. There was heavy firing with muskets and artillery yesterday, and by artillery to-day.

A private dispatch from Jackson, dated the 8th inst., reports Vicksburg is all right. General Kirby Smith is in possession of Milliken's Bend.

The Dispatch editorially says: Our telegrams from the Southwest still continue to be of the most cheering character. The brave garrison of Vicksburg are as confident and determined as ever, and Kirby Smith, with ten thousand men, is said to occupy Milliken's Bend, some twenty miles above Vicksburg, in the right bank of the Mississippi, and to have cut off Gen. Grant's supplies.
